

PLURALISM, INCLUSION & EQUITY (P.I.E.) SERIES (Cont'd)

III. Museum of Man Field Trip

April 24, 2020

7:30am – 4:30pm (approx.)

LOCATION: Balboa Park, San Diego

This interactive exhibit explores the question, "Race: Are We So Different?" By looking at the origins of race and racism, participants will engage in an exploration of the various aspects of the construction of race and the institutional and structural inequities of race. This field trip has a pre-field trip meeting requirement and space is limited. Transportation and lunch are included.

Pre Field Trip Prep on Thursday, April 23 at 5:30pm,
Anaheim Campus, Innovation Lab 10th Floor

REGISTRATION:

Registration on myGateway Staff Development Calendar
More information will be provided via email

IV. Serving Our Students with Learning Disabilities

May 1, 2020

9am-12pm

LOCATION: Anaheim Campus

ROOMS 105/107

PRESENTER: Ruth Sipple, M.S.

Learning Disability Specialist/DSPS Counselor
Disability Support Services

Part of the diversity of our students includes different learning styles and challenges. This workshop explores strategies for serving our students with learning disabilities and analyzing our curriculum and teaching practices to ensure inclusivity and compliance. The focus is on our district's student population and services.

REGISTRATION:

Registration on myGateway Staff Development Calendar
More information will be provided via email

